Recorded information

Recorded information about previously unscheduled meetings and consultations of the whole of the Security Council may be obtained by calling 1 (212) 963-8530, or by clicking on "Daily Programme" on the Web site of the Security Council <www.un.org/Docs/sc>.

Prepared statements

Speakers in the Security Council are advised that providing in advance copies of prepared statements which they intend to read out in the Council greatly facilitates the work of the Secretariat by permitting a sufficient number of copies to be distributed to all meeting participants and by assisting interpreters, verbatim reporters and press officers in maintaining the quality of the product delivered. Both interpretations and verbatim records rely upon the statement actually delivered, but copies of texts help interpreters to correctly render details and nuances and help verbatim reporters to produce the written record more quickly. Speakers are therefore encouraged, whenever possible, to provide copies of their statements, as early as possible in advance of delivery, to the Conference Officer in the Chamber.

Delegations are kindly requested to make 40 copies for minimum distribution to Council members and relevant services, and 200 additional copies for general distribution in the Security Council Chamber.

Delegations wishing to make statements available for the media are kindly requested to deliver 50 copies to the Media Documents Centre (e-mail mdc@un.org; tel. 1 (212) 963-7166; room S-394).

General Assembly

Sixty-fourth session

35th plenary meeting

Election of seven members of the Committee for Programme and Coordination: note by the Secretary-General (A/64/307) . . . . . [111 (a)]

The General Assembly decided to proceed to the election on the basis of dispensing with the secret ballot.

Since the number of candidates nominated by the Economic and Social Council from among the African States, the Eastern European States, the Latin American and Caribbean States and the Western European and other States was equal to or less than the number of seats to be filled in each of those groups, the Comoros, Haiti, Israel, Namibia, the Russian Federation and Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of) were declared elected members of the Committee for Programme and Coordination for a three-year term of office beginning on 1 January 2010.

The representative of the Islamic Republic of Iran made a statement on a point of order.

The General Assembly was informed that, regarding the four vacancies from among the Western European and other States, the Assembly would be in a position to act on it upon the nomination by the Economic and Social Council of four Member States from that region.

The General Assembly thus concluded this stage of its consideration of sub-item (a) of agenda item 111.

Election of thirty members of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law [111 (c)]

The General Assembly decided to proceed to the election on the basis of dispensing with the secret ballot.

Since the number of candidates from among the African States, the Asian States, the Eastern European States, the Latin American and Caribbean States and the Western European and other States was equal to or less than the number of seats to be filled in each of those groups, Algeria, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belarus, Brazil, Colombia, the Czech Republic, Fiji, Gabon, India, Iran (Islamic Republic of), Israel, Italy, Jordan, Kenya, Mauritius, Nigeria, Pakistan, the Philippines, Poland, Spain, Thailand, Turkey, Uganda, Ukraine, the United States of America and Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of) were declared elected members of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law for a six-year term beginning on 21 June 2010.

The representative of the Islamic Republic of Iran made a statement on a point of order.

The General Assembly was informed that, regarding the two vacancies from the Group of African States and the Group of Latin American and Caribbean States, the Assembly would hold elections upon notification by interested Member States from these two regions.

The General Assembly thus concluded this stage of its consideration of sub-item (c) of agenda item 111.

Election of twenty-nine members of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme: letter from Belarus (A/64/297) [111 (e)]

By-election

The President drew the attention of the General Assembly to document A/64/297, containing a letter from the Permanent Representative of Belarus, in which he announced that Belarus would relinquish its seat on the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme for the remainder of its term in favour of Hungary.

The General Assembly decided to proceed to the election on the basis of dispensing with the secret ballot.

The General Assembly declared Hungary elected a member of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme for a term of office beginning on 1 January 2010 and expiring on 31 December 2011.

Election of twenty-nine members

The General Assembly decided to proceed to the election on the basis of dispensing with the secret ballot.

Since the number of candidates endorsed by the African States, the Asian States, the Eastern European States, the Latin American and Caribbean States and the Western European and other States was equal to the number of seats to be filled in each of those regions, Antigua and Barbuda, Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, the Central African Republic, China, the Czech Republic, France, Gabon, Germany, Indonesia, Japan, Kenya, Lesotho, Malaysia, Mauritania, Mozambique, Pakistan, the Republic of Korea, Romania, the Russian Federation, Switzerland, Trinidad and Tobago, the United Republic of Tanzania, the United States of America, Uruguay and Zambia were declared elected members of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme for a four-year term of office beginning on 1 January 2010.

The General Assembly thus concluded its consideration of sub-item (e) of agenda item 111.

Appointment of members of the Committee on Conferences: note by the Secretary-General (A/64/107) . . . . . [112 (f)]

The General Assembly took note of the appointments by the President of the General Assembly of Côte d'Ivoire, Germany and the Syrian Arab Republic as members of the Committee on Conferences for a period of three years, beginning on 1 January 2010.

The General Assembly was informed that regarding the remaining vacant seats from among the African States, the Eastern European States and the Latin American and Caribbean States, the President of the General Assembly will continue to hold consultations with the regional groups.

The General Assembly thus concluded this stage of its consideration of sub-item (f) of agenda item 112.

Appointment of members of the Joint Inspection Unit: note by the Secretary-General (A/64/106) . . . . . [112 (g)]

The President announced that, as the groups of the African States and the Eastern European States had each endorsed one candidate for one vacancy, namely, Senegal and Hungary, respectively, those two countries would therefore be requested to propose a candidate each for appointment to the Joint Inspection Unit.

Since, from among the Western European and other States, there were three candidates for two vacancies, the General Assembly proceeded to select by secret ballot two States from among the Western European and other States to be requested to propose candidates for appointment to the Joint Inspection Unit.

Having obtained the required majority and the greatest number of votes, France (117 vote) and Turkey (146 votes) were selected to propose a candidate each for appointment to the Joint Inspection Unit.

The President of the General Assembly announced that, after holding the consultations pursuant to article 3, paragraph 2, of the statute of the Joint Inspection Unit, he would propose a list of candidates to the Assembly for appointment to the Joint Inspection Unit.

The General Assembly thus concluded this stage of its consideration of sub-item (g) of agenda item 112.
